Step Inside For A Mega Spacious Surprise...

Securely nestled in this small secure boutique development just steps to High Street, is this impressive triple story town residence, which offers the perfect balance of easy low maintenance living, making it the perfect position to call home.

Entry is into a welcoming entrance foyer which leads you through the independent lower level offering a spacious robed bedroom with its own bathroom & small courtyard, laundry and internal garage access. The crowning glory of this home is the light filled middle level open plan design, which cleverly separates kitchen away from the oversized open plan living room which naturally spills outdoors. The 3rd level is also a picture of functionality for those that are wanting the ideal layout for sharing, as there is another generous robed bedroom and bathroom.

Other added comforts include: Split system heating/cooling, heating, roomy single auto garage and security intercom entrance.
