Loads of natural light shines on through the open plan living area with the right space for casual meals, nice kitchen with ample cupboard & bench space, very private mirrored robe bedroom that perfectly leads to outdoor entertaining and roomy ensuite bathroom that completes your wants, laundry facilities a must.

In a nice quiet residential street that makes coming home feel it's Christmas all year because of its name, its envied trees, its good local shopping, its easy transport options and lets not forget the fun nights you can have on happening High Street, that all can be enjoyed from this position.
