Step Into The Sun, In Single Level Style...

Set behind immaculate gardens, in a well groomed group located perfectly between the weekday commute of Eastern Freeway and the weekend lifestyle of the Yarra River Banks, is this abundantly alluring home that has some serious flair and downsizing or first home buying appeal.

Effortless, low maintenance accommodation comprises sun drenched open plan living and dining adjoining an elegant and well equipped kitchen that flows out to the perfect spot to catch some sun in your own private manicured garden setting. A smartly designed hallway perfectly zones away a family bathroom and two generous bedrooms that both are complemented with mirrored robes and leafy outlooks.

This airy and secluded retreat also enjoys the benefits of a designated study area, double European laundry, timber
