Sun Soaked Westgarth Wonder...

One above all others is this executive apartment that has everything you could want in a location to be envied, right in the heart of wonderful Westgarth, known as the fashion, food and transport convenience capital of the North.

Everything about its position is perfect. It's favourably perched up on the 1st level on the North side of this small modern boutique complex of only 14, allowing natural light flow throughout its spacious interior that offers a totally private and quiet vibe on the inside.

A seamless flow from the North facing open living area opens out onto a sun drenched undercover alfresco terrace, while the smart kitchen connects perfectly for casual dining. A double vanity bathroom offers the convenience of his and hers ownership as does the full width mirrored robed bedroom that also confirms privacy is
