A Great Address Is Just The Beginning...

A stellar location, a highly desirable pocket in the Northcote High School Zone and classic modern charm, combine to present a fantastic opportunity for those in search of a low maintenance inner city lifestyle.

A spectacular light filled open plan living setting steals the show with glass doors that open outdoors to a generous garden secure for kids or the ideal entertaining place for adults. The glossy kitchen is well equipped with gas cooking, dishwasher and smartly finished timber island bench, perfect for a casual meal or preparation area. A welcoming entrance hallway leads you through this gorgeous home which offers two robed bedrooms with the master offering access into the family bathroom with separate shower and bath tub and the European laundry is also well placed within the hallway.

Other highlights include: Easy auto off street parking, terrific attic storage space, ducted heating, split system
