The One You Have Been Waiting For...

Unique style secrets are revealed throughout this outstanding apartment, which maintains flagship qualities of a practical free flowing floor plan and private decked courtyard garden. While you love living here, it will also be easy to enjoy the host of dining and transport options only moments from your door in this envied Rucker's Hill location.

A welcoming entrance hallway creates an immediate sense of house like qualities upon entry and provides an easy natural flow between kitchen, dining and lounge with large windows and sliding doors which filters the perfect amount of natural light and outlook leading out onto that marvelous garden setting. The two spacious bedrooms both offer an unexpected sense of total privacy and share a light well courtyard and fully tiled double vanity bathroom. Committed finishes and features include: Dishwasher, gas cooking, split system heating/cooling, independent hot water service, visual interface security and an easily accessible
