Under Offer Prior To Auction...

Your affordable break into Northcote should be this chic townhouse, perfectly tucked away privately at the rear of this slick development, focusing on brilliant outdoor entertaining in a totally private garden setting and with a brilliant lock up garage, which has been the perfect home studio/office space.

A natural palette seamlessly flows from the exterior to the interior which is flooded with natural light and expansive windows throughout its two-level design. The open plan living area is complimented by a generous outdoor terrace perfectly extending dinner parties and is favourably on looked by the uncluttered kitchen which presents itself with easy functionality. The double robe bedroom suite is a totally private domain offering direct access into the light filled bathroom. Extras include: Water tank, solar hot water split system heating/cooling, dishwasher, gas cooking and well placed European laundry.
