A Street Facing, City View Haven...

Triumphant in its ability to blend the creation of space with warmth and intimacy throughout its well-planned layout, this apartment really promises incredible comfort and an easy-care lifestyle, moments from Northcote's best restaurants, schools, tram and train stations.

A joy to live in, its 1st floor position is bathed in glorious sunshine and provides an easy natural flow between kitchen, dining and lounge, opening outdoors to the undercover terrace which enjoys distant views. The mirrored robe bedrooms are generous in size with the master enjoying the flickering city night lights and both share a fully tiled bathroom suite. A dedicated entrance foyer provides a smart study desk and cleverly hides a European laundry.

The attention to detail makes all the difference in this
