SOLD - Prior To Auction $374,060

Fresh and so full of light on the 1st floor, this apartment guarantees you will love everything about the kitchen, the renovation and its lucky street facing position on this small block of only 12, where no one walks pass your door, it shares only one wall and even enjoys some outdoor with city views.

Welcome on inside to a fantastic open plan living room that allows for functional dining & living spaces that cleverly adjoins a proud Master Chef teacher's kitchen with heaps of cupboard and bench space. A totally private and leafy master bedroom captures the city flicking night lights and leads you into a nice bathroom. Some nice finishing touches include: Smartly hidden laundry options, Bamboo timber floors throughout, easy to match interior and split system heating/cooling unit that will further impress.

A well cared for small apartment block that is surrounded with transport options and a wanted social fun or latte
