Inner City Slicker...

Designed to deliver the perfect work life balance, is this brand new distinctive apartment in the beating heart of Northcote, that offers everything you need on your doorstep, to make life a pleasure.

This eye-catching building, with greenery and industrial elements is an impressive architectural achievement, which runs through to sleek interiors with premium fittings and finishes that are sophisticated but also timeless. A very practical layout flows outdoors from the north facing open plan living room that is overseen by the expertly finished kitchen with SMEG appliances. The designer style bathroom suite and the European laundry is also very thoughtfully planned. This apartment also offers exceptional storage options with generous mirrored robes, linen cupboard and underground car park.

Within walking distance from your door, you'll find yourself immersed in the beating heart of Northcote, where you can
