Step inside and you will be pleasantly surprised. You will love the space and good natural light that this ground floor one-bedroom apartment shows off, in this cool 60's red brick building and popular street, which lets you enjoy a brisk walk to High Street or St George's Road's wealth of lifestyle options and public transport conveniences.

A standout free flowing floor plan welcomes you inside to a preferred entrance hallway into a roomy lounge room with big windows that overlooks a neat and well-planned kitchen with gas cooking, a nice separate bathroom with bath tub and excellent storage options in the separate laundry room.

Added extras include: Easy car park, linen press, built in robes and a great tenant who loves living here if you're looking for an easy investment.
