From the outside this may look like any other apartment block, but step inside into unit 4, and you will be instantly surprised it feels like a home. Its envied rear corner position highlights its welcoming points of differences to its neighbours, there is no apartment above, its private, its quiet and its well-designed layout, is maximised outdoors with a wonderfully green and private garden retreat.

A stylish Interior reflects modern ideals with an abundance of space and practicality, welcoming you through an inviting entrance foyer which creates a seamless flow throughout. A much-desired open plan living design exceeds typical standards with its proper dining spaces completed by a well-appointed kitchen and its natural flow out onto the great outdoors. Two totally private bedrooms are also perfectly placed away from the living zone and both share a cool brick light well courtyard and nice bathroom with a separate shower and a real bath tub. A European laundry is also thoughtfully placed in this winning design.
