Now you can indulge in a well-deserved lifestyle, courtesy of this young town residence at the end of a small group of only 5, with all the right fundamentals for seasonal entertaining without compromising, as there is so much space inside and out.

It is low maintenance living at its best with light and airy open plan dining and dedicated living zones which is all overseen by the crowning glory feature on this lower level, its expertly finished and designed kitchen. The lower level also reveals a flexible home office/bedroom, powder room, European laundry and naturally leads and overlooks into oversized courtyard garden which will be unexpected. A totally independent 2nd level showcases the master bedroom, bathed in sunlight and complete with a walk-in open robe and ensuite.

A host to many necessities which include: Two secure undercover car parks, generous storage room, security
