Breathtaking Beauty?

Properties at 6 Kemp Street have a reputation for being sought-after propositions when they hit the market, as it's not every day a converted period home becomes available in this neighbourhood, but number one is really, the pick of them all?

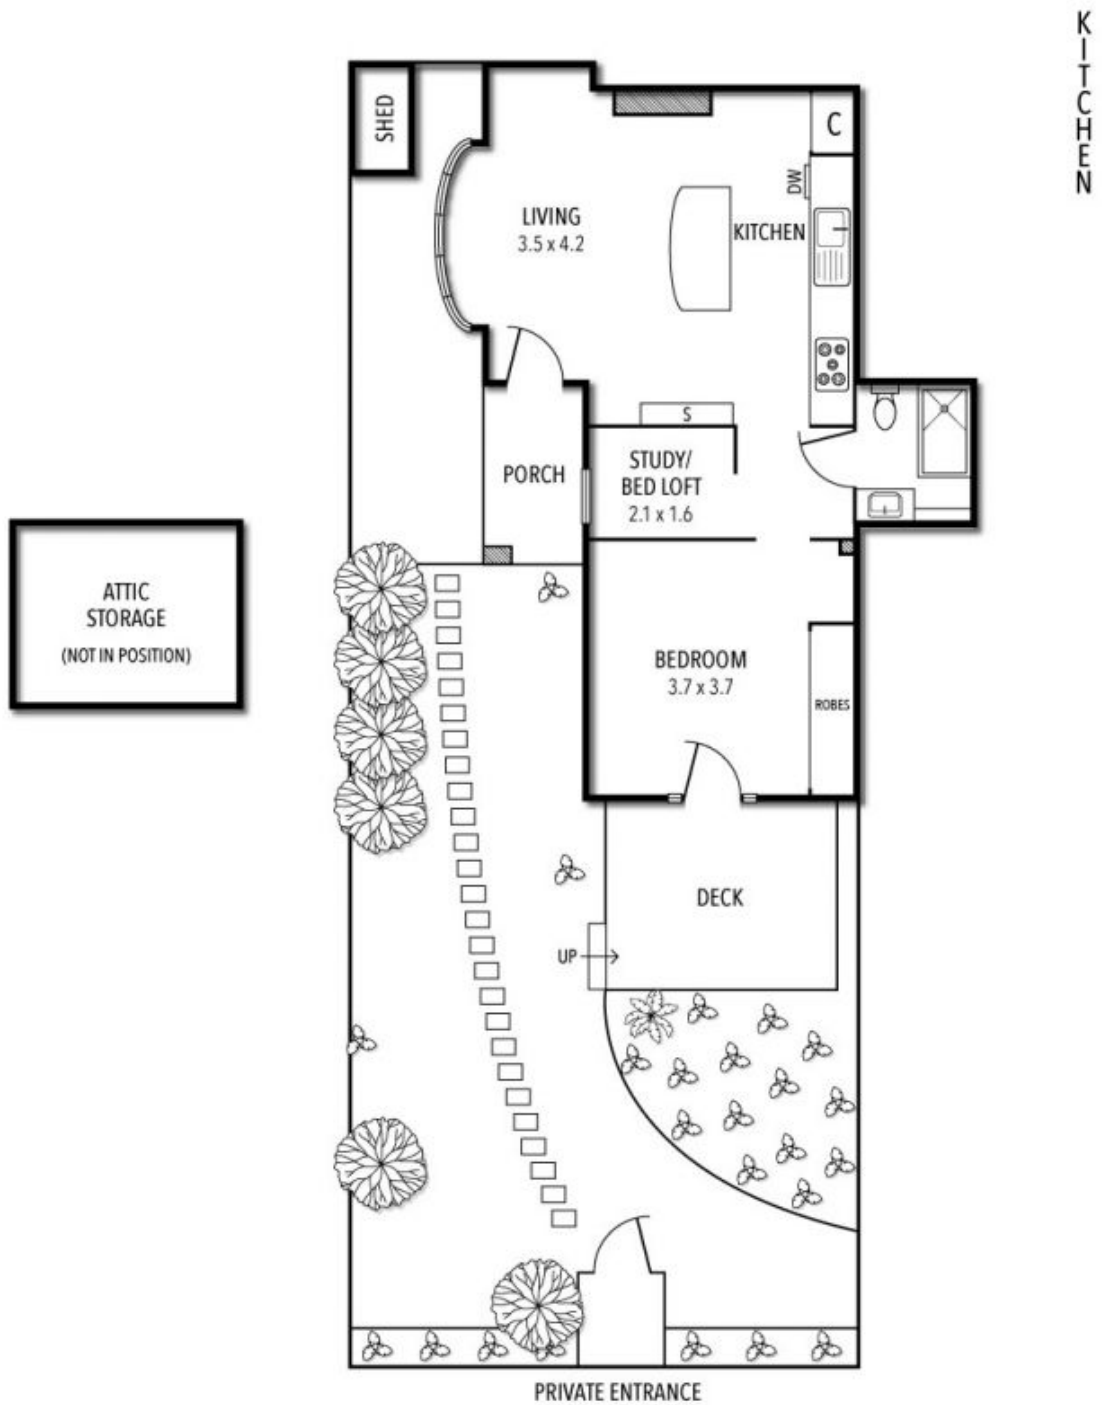

Part of number one's alluring magical attraction, is its separate entrance and private garden, providing the very best in seclusion and privacy amongst the 3 other residences, who also form part of this gorgeous period homes' conversion.

Its interior offers a mix of loveable warmth and understated home style comforts, with its open plan living layout, practical island bench, bath retreat, European laundry, dishwasher and split system heating/cooling. As you retire for the evening, the inviting romantic master bedroom lets
