A huge surprise of unexpected size and eclectic charm is this now highly fashionable solid brick villa unit, which has a real courtyard to rave on about, when you're outside entertaining, boasting about how proud you are to call this your new home.

Welcome on inside and enjoy a well-presented interior throughout its over sized layout which offers a huge living room, delightful eat in kitchen, central bathroom fit for a growing family with bath tub, separate toilet and separate laundry. It won't be a hard also not to point how gorgeous the original mosaic bathroom tiles are, how cute the door handles are and how really cool the brass light fittings are along with the added benefits of energy savings having gas heating and gas cooking facilities.
