You will feel on top of the world in this dust painted top floor street facing apartment that is soaked with sunshine throughout its spacious interior, located in this top position, not too far from High Street, Parklands and just around the corner from the areas most talked Jerry Joy Café.

Upon entrance you will instantly recognize why its envied by others on this well managed small secure block, as it offers a real sense of independence with a feeling that no one is peering on through its lovely big windows throughout a well-planned living room, and advantaged big bedrooms which both enjoy distant views all year round. A neat kitchen with gas stove offers a casual meals bench while the bathroom offers the convenience of its own laundry facilities.

Other positive attributes include: New carpets, new blinds, security intercom entrance, built in robes and off-street parking.
