Versatility That Will Suit Your Needs...

Perfectly placed at the front of this small boutique development, is this impressive two-level town residence, which offers a flexible layout for independent living or the perfect home office alternative. Its standout quiet court position also allows the ease to walk to sizzling Station Street's café and restaurant culture, Fairfield Train Station and the famous Fairfield Boathouse.

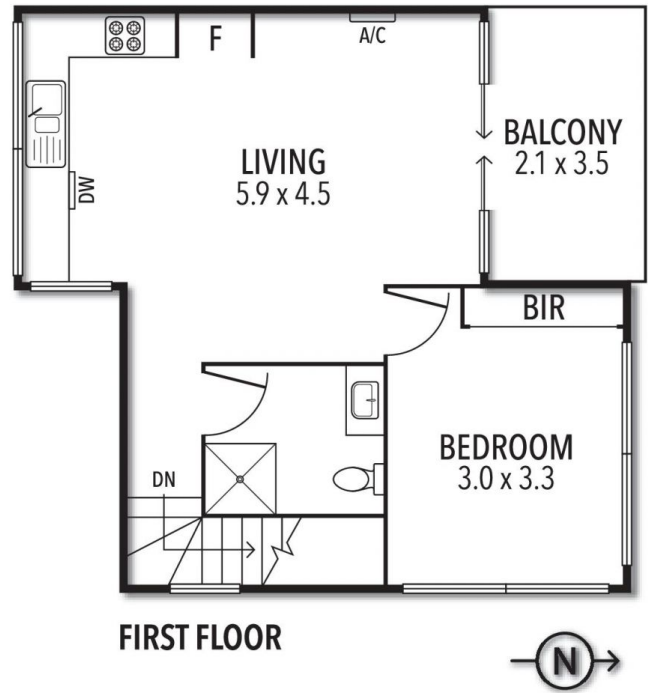

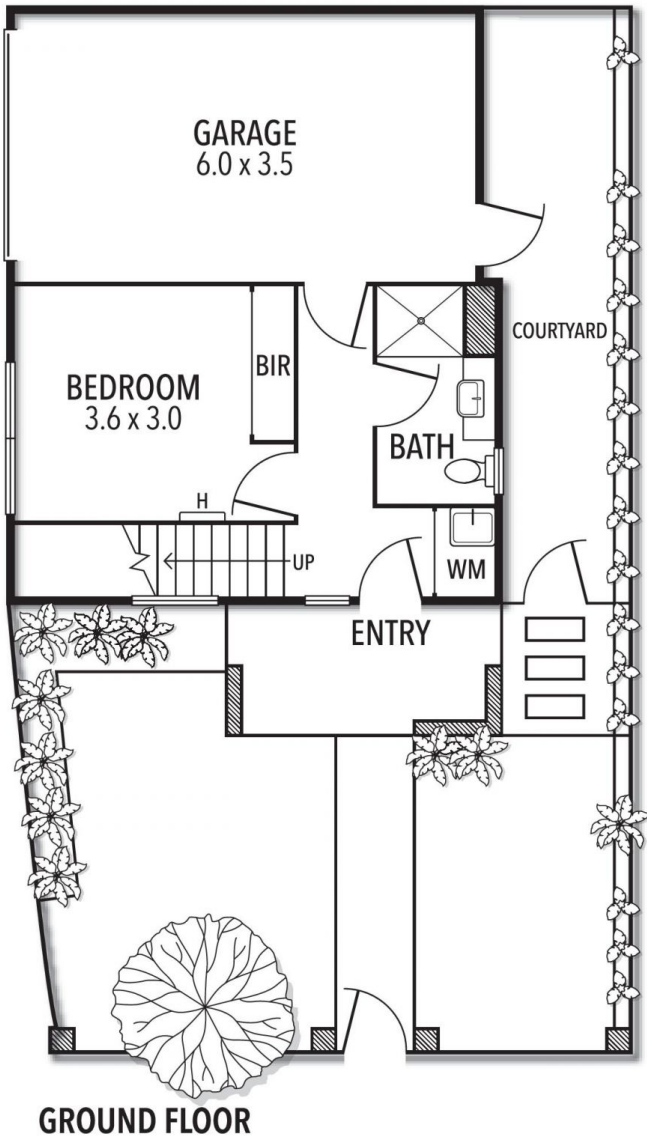

Entry is into a welcoming entrance foyer which leads you through the independent lower level offering a spacious robed bedroom, bathroom, small courtyard, laundry and internal garage access. Emerge upstairs to a naturally light filled open plan design, which naturally spills outdoors and is complemented by a well-equipped Caesar stone kitchen. This level is also a picture of functionality for those that are wanting the ideal layout for sharing or separated home working space, as there is another generous robed bedroom and bathroom.
