Presented to please, its freshly painted walls and new timber floorboards throughout immediately sets the scene that your furniture will easily match. You'll also be impressed that the well planned open living room comfortably accommodates a dining table for your dinner events and when it's complete, you can run a bath to relax in your cute retro bathroom.

Some other loveable treats and necessities are big windows, split system heating/cooling, internal laundry facilities, easy off-street parking, built in robe and an easy walk to Penders Park.
