So Cool?

Rarely found in our neighbourhood is a cool transformation like 129 Albert Street, which is often admired for its individuality, as its unassuming early 2000's new build façade, is hiding a super cool small group of only 11 townhouses.

A secure gated entrance shared by all, gives you more of a wonderful warehouse inner-city escape vibe upon entering the driveway and welcomes each resident through to their very own independent entrances.

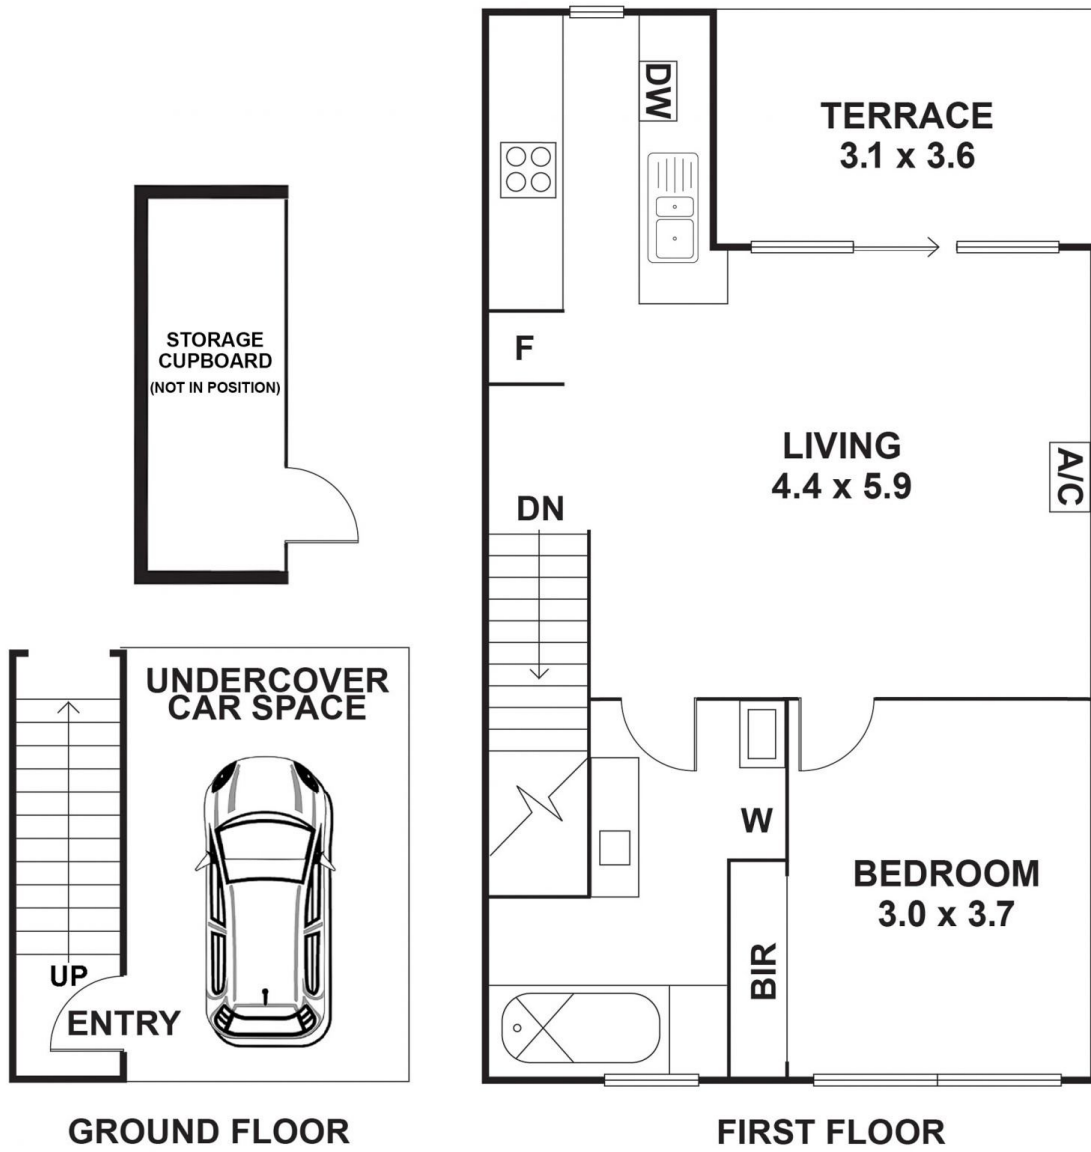

Your excitement will continue upstairs to reveal how this private oasis is airy, functional and light filled. An open plan living area is overlooked by a well-planned kitchen which naturally spills outdoors. The generous bedroom retreat enjoys a surprising leafy backdrop & the separate bathroom retreat will help seal the deal as it has a bath and laundry facilities. Other necessities & committed improvements include: Under building carport, storage
